

Milton Jones Wins Honor

S-1/c Harry Milton Jones, former employee of the Torrance Herald, has been selected for specialized training in the Electronics Technician's Mate school at the U. S. Naval Training Center in Great Lakes, Ill., according to information received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones, 1318 W. 221st st.

A letter from his chaplain said that Jones would have a highly intensified curriculum which will "demand diligent study." His advancement to seaman first class was his second in a month.

13 Lucky Men

More exhaustive tests were being conducted yesterday for Howard Hughes' $25,000,000 plywood flying boat after Hughes took it into the air at a 70-foot height Sunday during test taxi runs over the choppy waters of Los Angeles-Long Beach harbor.

Crowds estimated at 15,000 lined beaches and watched from other points of vantage as Hughes, at the controls, lifted the monster plane from the water into a 20-knot wind

2 Fined For Drunk Driving

Two men were fined and had their driver's licenses suspended for 90 days on charges of driving while intoxicated by Justice of the Peace John A. Shidler sitting in City court this week.

Don L. Thomas, 627 N. Gafey pl., San Pedro, pleaded guilty to the charge Saturday for the offense, which had occurred earlier the same day. He was fined $125.

Fined $150 Tuesday was Henry E. Williams, 1552 W. 144th st., Gardena. He had been arrested Monday night at the intersection of Sartori and Marcella avenues.

'OVERCOMING EVIL' WILL BE THEME OF LOMITA SERMON

At the morning worship at the Community Presbyterian church, 2154 245th st., Lomita, the sermon theme will be "Overcoming the World's Evils by Positive Goodness." A full-color picture of life in India will be shown at 7:30 p.m. in the evening. It shows the need for Christian missions and what is being done to meet the need.

New Columbia Appointments

Appointment of R. E. Copeland as manager of sales for the southern division of Columbia Steel Company was announced by C. H. Wittenberg, division manager of this U. S. Steel subsidiary.

Simultaneously, Wittenberg announced four other division appointments. They are: L. S. Brock, assistant manager of sales; C. W. Hefflin, assistant manager of sales; W. F. Heinemann, castings manager and D. C. Storey, contracting manager.

Offices of the southern division of Columbia Steel Company are located at 2087 E. Slauson ave., Los Angeles.

Pueblo Topics

By GLORIA FLORES

A committee of Pueblo citizens has started a Christmas fund for all the kids in this community. So far contributions by the merchants in Torrance have been splendid and we owe lots of thanks to them. In about two weeks or more a general list of all those who so generously contributed will be presented in this paper. The director of this committee is Rafael Solis; president, John Lopez; secretary, Angel Molinar; treasurer, Gloria Flores; members, Dorothy Mora, Virginia Heredia, Tony Rios and Al Ordaz.

Mrs. Eva Guzman Moore gave birth to a baby girl last week. The baby was named Gloria Lee Moore.

Mauro Torres is ill in bed this week suffering from an injured foot. The accident occurred while he was at work.

Toby Rehaga spent a joyful weekend at Tijuana, Baja California.

The Del Amo club will sponsor a dance next Saturday, Nov. 8, at the Recreation hall. Refreshments will be served and music furnished by the Rhythm Kings.
